Exploring the possibility of Sunday School

We are thinking of starting a Sunday School for our Benefice. We hope it might meet on a Sunday afternoon from 3:00pm to 4:15pm, ending with a short celebration of what the children have done that day "come and see, with cake and tea".

Join us on Sunday 27th June at 3.00pm at St Mary's Church, Ashbury, (where the very first Sunday School in the UK was established by Rev'd Thomas Stock in 1777) to find out more about this, help us pray and prepare for it, share your ideas, and offer your help and support.

Let us know if you can come, and if you want more information contact Paul:
